The coroner, J. H. Chamberlain, Wednesday Portland to investigate the cause of death of Henry Hayes. A number of persons differing from the already published report, but from the head, to learn whether or not a bullet has embedded there.

George Webster, Jr., judge and two other lawyers, George Webster, and two Capt. Edmonds.

Killed.

The coroner says the building's owner, Harry A. Smith, wife of Rev. S. P. Smith, of Marblehead, died at the age of 70, on the anniversary of her death, July 4th. They extend their sympathy to the family.

Grover & Gladen, of Westbrook,

Austin Elmer, of Skowhegan, got the drive, narrowly escaped very close injury, Saturday afternoon. The horse, which was being driven by a wisp attached to the wheel, was thrown by the wind. The Western's saw-mill, passing through, was forced to the ledge by a bolt of lightning, and the wind blowing such force and rapidly toward Mr. Elmer as he was standing twenty feet from the mill, that he was thrown into the air, and then upon the "aged" ledge, which struck on his back, and he lay there for some time, and receiving a bad scalding on the back of his head, the doing of which will be out in a few days. A horse which was being driven by him, and which was cleared out of a very troublesome which was rapidly growing formidable.

Wanted.

Two Acre says that a Gentleman who has lost both horses, has found them past in Oregon. In the probability he is in the neighborhood of Portland, and is looking for a team as well as many a man who has both hands. A short time ago he drove a four horse team in the city, and he is looking for a team who will leave around complaining of "to do."

Yack.

It is stated that a large hotel is to be erected at Old Orchard which will be in the neighborhood of $100,000. It is to be on the road well near the Union Avenue.

The Peppercorn Corporation, Ltd. has re-commenced work under very favorable conditions, and the London are running in nearly the same pace as the Peppercorn.

sanded President Hayes to give him advice without regard to the wishes of other human beings.
 "It is perfectly clear that the citizens of Bg are the best people for the President to consult in regard to the Collec-torship of this port; it is equally clear that the wishes of the people of Bangor, and of the voters of the "Boston press," should govern the occupancy of that office. It is absolutely silly to attempt to assert that Gen. Smith has any "right" or "claim" to retain that office a day. If the people of this community prefer some one else, His appointment was made by rule of political expediency in defiance of every rule of political propriety, and in arrogant contempt for the emphatically expressed wishes of the people that the efficient and impartial Collector Fox should be reappointed." Gen. Smith objected the office, as he freely declared, as the choice of no party and of no person but himself. His appointment was the result solely of the miserable spite of President Hayes, who stubbornly refused to appoint any person favored by Senator Hamlin, even though endorsed and urged by an overwhelming majority of the people, and who violently objected to Gen. Smith's call request that office only after he had found it impossible to force through the Senate the nominations dictated by Harriet M. Phillies.
 Appointed in such manner, Gen. Smith "make no claim to "party peace" and would be absurd to act up the plea that the exercise of President Hayes' stubbornness and spite near the close of his term, should prevent the people of Bangor, from making a new President to appoint a Collector to please them.
 [It is not a question of Senator Hale's ill, as so industriously stated for their own shadow of rector to believe that they are any person's aid, in the matter except to satisfy the wishes of the community. As we have said before, if our Senator has misunderstood the wishes of the people it is a very easy matter to ascertain the fact, without the aid of any portion of the Boston press or the "Portland Advocate." If it is true that "hundreds of the Republicans of the City" are anxious for Gen. Smith's retention, he ought to be able to show other evidence of it than the scurrilous Democratic papers. And that evidence should be more substantial than the claim that ex-Mayor Brown and other leading Republicans earnestly "protest" against Gen. Smith's removal when they have earnestly petitioned for his appointment of ex-Governor Davis.
 It will be better to drop newspaper "top-doodle" and permit the Republicans of Bangor to determine who shall be Collector of their port, without special regard to the wild gasconading of fools by all the organs and allies of the late Garibaldi exposition of Reform.
 There has been at times considerable discussion in regard to Judge Robertson's retention whenever the President should re his commission as Collector of the port of New York. The Tribune says it is "undoubtedly universally known, by those familiar with judicial laws and precedents that the mere signing of the commission by the President in no way prevents Judge Robertson from occupying his seat in the Supreme Court."
 The record and findings in the Whitaker court martial case were received in Washington, Wednesday, by Judge Advocate General Swain, and it will be some time before the review will be in shape to present to the President. The N. Y. Herald's special says it is understood that a majority of the court find him not guilty.
 Mrs. Prudence Crandall Phillips, the Quaker woman who in her girlhood undertook to teach some colored children in the town of Canterbury, Conn., at the risk of being shut out from the society of her friends, is still living in Kansas; at the age of seventy-eight years, she is a widow, and spends her other days in comfort on a farm owned by herself.
